

Fe fyddwn i yn dewis Cronfa Ddŵr Cantref ym Mannau Brycheiniog ...gerllaw'r A470 o Gaerdydd...yr oedden ni yn arfer mynd i Dregaron yng ngorllewin Cymru pan oeddwn i'n blentyn, a dyna'r ffordd yr oedden ni'n teithio. Rwy'n cofio aros yno'n aml a chael picnic gyda'r teulu. Rwy'n cofio teithio y ffordd yno yn ystod sychder 1976 pan oedd y dŵr yn ofnadwy o isel, ac ni fedrwn i gredu pa mor fawr oedd y gronfa, ond hefyd fe welais yr hyn oedd ar ôl o'r hen bentref - 'doedd dim llawer o olion ond fe fedrech chi weld tameidiau...roedd o'n edrych ychydig yn swreal ac ychydig yn frawychus. Fe wnes i sgrifennu amdano ar gyfer fy mhrosiect Deaeryddiaeth lefel O ac mae'r lluniau gen i o hyd...Roedd yna gwpwl o gronfeydd eraill yn yr ardal yna, ac mae'r ardal i gyd yn wych...mae o'n teimlo fel Cymru.

I would pick Cantref Reservoir in the Brecon Beacons...by the A470 out of Cardiff...we used to go to Tregaron in West Wales as a child and that was the way that we would drive. I remember stopping there most times that we went and having a picnic with my family. "I remember vividly going during the drought of 1976 and couldn't believe how big the reservoir was. There were even remains of the old village. There wasn't a lot but you could make some bits out...it seemed really surreal and a bit scary. I wrote about it for my "O" level Geography project and still have the pictures...There were another couple of reservoirs around there all that area is great...it just feels like Wales

Pryd bynnag yr oeddem ni'n mynd yna roedd y tywydd yn ymddangos yn hyfryd a phoeth ac yr oeddem ni yn arfer mynd am dro o amgylch rhannau ohono. Rwy'n meddwl fy mod yn ei hoffi oherwydd, er bod yna wastad bobl, roedd y lle wastad yn teimlo'n heddychlon, ac yr roeddwn wrth fy modd â'r holl goed a lliwiau'r Bannau - roedden nhw'n newid, o las-felyn, i lwyd. Roeddem yn arfer mynd i weld rhai o'r blodau gwyllt ( rwy'n cofio casglu Dant y Llew) a chael bod hefo 'nheulu. Weithiau (os yr oeddem ni'n blant da) fe fyddem ni'n cael hufen ia yna hefyd!!!!!!

Roeddem yn arfer aros yno ar y ffordd adre, gan wybod nad oeddem ni'n rhy bell i ffordd !!!!

Whenever we went there the weather always seemed to be beautiful and hot and we used to walk around. I think that I like it because although there used to be people there it always seemed peaceful. I used to love all the trees and the colour of the Beacons - they were never the same, always changing from yellowy green, to grey. We went to look for wild flowers (I remember picking dandelions) and just being with my family. If we were good we would have ice cream as a special treat.

When we used to stop at the reservoir on the way back, we knew we weren't too far from home!!
